40 times escape level 27

TIME : 2016-1-8 23:56:52 What is the answer to level 27 on 40x escape The sign 4 x 4 means press the fourth button four times. Escape is a 40x Logic-based puzzle game that you can play directly from your internet browser. As the name suggests, there are 40 levels each involving a brainteaser of different difficulties for you to try and solve. Some are not so bad, but, as is usually the case with these types of games, there are bound to be one or two levels that completely outsethe you. The more you get, the harder it gets, and level 27 is a special level in the 40x escape that many players travel up. Here's exactly how to solve the 40x escape level 27.Level 27 is one such level that you really have to think differently about in order to solve. The hint that 40x escape gives you is simply 4x4. At first you might look at it and think it's a simple math problem. If you worked out that answer is 16, then congratulations, you're good at math - 4x4 is 16.Unfortunately, while it may be the answer to the math question, which won't help you escape at level 27 of the 40x. As you will undoubtedly be able to say, there are not 24 buttons on the wall—only six—so you can't just hit the 24 button and in your happy way. Some puzzles require you to think outside the box. Level 27 in 40x escape will not ask you to do math. When you say the lead out loud, you quadriable four times that first part of the lead, four times it's a hint that you have to do something four times. but what about the last part : four is what you have to do four times . it makes a lot of sense when you look at it like that . So, the solution to the puzzle is to press the fourth button on the wall four times. Now that you've figured out that level 27, you can go ahead and try to solve some puzzles later in the game. If any of the other levels prove to be a challenge, you can always check in twinfinte for more guides on 40x escape.
